Imoleayo Michael is a young computer programmer who only wants a fairer, more just Nigeria. In October 2020, he joined other young people who were protesting against the Special Anti-Robbery Squad – or SARS – a police unit notorious for violence, extortion and killings. Two weeks later, armed men took him from his home and locked him in an underground cell for 41 days. He's facing trumped-up charges and years in prison, all because he believes that Nigeria's police can do better for the people they are meant to protect. I urge you to drop all charges against Imoleayo immediately.

Yours sincerely
